THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALIASHRAF FATMI): (a) to (d) The Indian institutes of Management (IIMs) are empowered to take decision regarding starting new courses in their respective Institutes. Being conscious to the need for development of Small and Medium Enterprises, the Institutes are running programmes in this area. IIM. Ahmedabad has been conducting a two-week general management programems to help Small and Medium Entrepreneurs to develop their entrepreneurial skills. IIM, Calcutta has started offering programmes for small and medium enterprises and entrepreneurship development through their Centre for Entrepreneurship and Innovation. In IIM, Lucknow, a Centre for Entrepreneurial Venture has been set up with a view to boost small and medium entrepreurship. IIM, Bangalore has initiated Management Programme for Entrepreneurs and Family Business at its N.S. Raghavan Centre for Entrepreneurial Learning (NSRCEL). IIM, Indore is launching a Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurship from August 28, 2006 to provide training, education, research and consultancy to SMEs.

Some of the graduates from the IIMs prefer to go for entrepreneurial ventures rather than seeking placement with MNCs.
